

Top tips to help you communicate with someone living with autism

- 1) Be clear and precise with your language; using plain English
 - do not rely on the person to pick up on the meaning of your questions and body language
 - avoid using open questions, words with double meaning and humour that could be misunderstood
- 2) Give the person enough time to process and understand the information you are sharing
- 3) Ask them what help they need
- 4) Explain at every stage what you are about to do, what will happen next and when
- 5) Be consistent in your actions and do what you say you will do
- 6) Don't be surprised if there is lack of eye contact, unusual body language or if inappropriate language is used
- 7) Respect repetitive behaviours; they might be someone's coping mechanism
- 8) Think about the environment and be aware that some things cause sensory overload (for example, light, movement, sounds, smell and touch)
- 9) Back things up in writing
- 10) Always consider the person's behaviour in terms of his or her autism, even if it becomes challenging
